

the deadline in January 2004 for this action needs to be extended or exempted for state and local law enforcement and fire departments so that we can continue to work out our interoperability issues for mutual aid.